

2 TIPS TO IMPROVE GEN Z LEARNING OUTCOMES

Don't dismiss the distracted minds of Generation Z students. By mixing up teaching techniques, you can make an impact on these multitaskers.

1

Assign prework that includes a mix of short readings, videos, prerecorded mini lectures, self-paced learning modules, and web-search activities.

2

During classtime, intermix short segments of content with small-group activities, such as unfolding case studies.
